

4th Annual Food Truck Cook-Off presented by The WireNut kicks off the 2019 Small Business Week at The Broadmoor World Arena, Sunday, May 5

Tickets are now on sale

COLORADO SPRINGS (April 5, 2019) – On Sunday, May 5, the highly-anticipated 4th Annual Food Truck Cook-Off will take place at The Broadmoor World Arena from 11a.m.-4p.m. Due to its increasing popularity over the last three years, this year there will be double the trucks, double the space, double the taste!

Presented by The WireNut and hosted by the Pikes Peak Small Business Development Center and the Better Business Bureau of Southern Colorado, this year's Food Truck Cook-Off will showcase 33 food vendors and 5 drink/dessert vendors versus 17 trucks in 2018. Click here for a list of the trucks participating in this year's event.

Tickets for the Food Truck Cook-Off are now on sale for $25 each (plus applicable fees). This includes the following:

- Entry into the Food Truck area
- 10 tickets for food sampling – additional food sampling tickets are $1 each
- One vote in the Best Food Truck – People's Choice competition
- Emceed by 92.9 Peak FM (Jolana Miller and Coyote McCloud)
- TV coverage by KRDO
- Access to the Cinco de Mayo beer garden; and
- Entertainment and music by the All Star DJs.

Tickets can be purchased online at BroadmoorWorldArena.com and AXS.com, The Broadmoor World Arena box office or by phone at (719) 520-SHOW. They can also be purchased in person at the Pikes Peak Center box office.

Patrons are strongly encouraged to purchase their tickets in advance. All tickets purchased before May 3 at 3 p.m. will be given early entry into the event. Doors open for advance ticket holders at 11 a.m. If tickets are still available, they may be purchased on event day, but purchasers will not be permitted entry until 12:30 p.m. Space is limit; ticket sales will cap at 3,000 attendees.
